

After La Grippe

"I had suffered several weeks with LaGrippe. Had pains in my head and eyes. It felt as though there was a heavy weight on the top of my head, until it seemed that my brain would burst. I was so nervous that I could not rest or sleep. When I dozed off I would awake with a sudden jerking of my whole body. Dr. Miles' Nerve, Heart Remedy and Nerve and Liver Pills cured me. A number of friends have since realized the same benefits."

MRS. ALVIN H. LOCKS,
Seabrook, N. H.

The after effects of LaGrippe are often more serious than the disease, as it leaves the system in a weakened condition that invites more serious troubles, such as pneumonia, etc.

Dr. Miles'

should be taken for some time to thoroughly restore nerve strength.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by all druggists. If the first bottle does not benefit, your druggist will return your money.

LOCAL.

Make it 1910 Saturday.

Pat Jones, of Nashville, spent the holidays here.

Wm. Brewer, of the South End, was here Tuesday.

W. A. Chadwick, of Victoria, was here Monday.

Mrs. Eliza Warren, of Jasper, was here Tuesday.

Walter Hopkins, of Bridgeport, Christmased here.

J. A. Blanton, of Chattanooga, spent Christmas with his family.

C. Johnson, candidate for sheriff, went to Contra Switch Tuesday.

Lawrence Colwell returned from East Lake Thursday where he has been working.

Dallas Dixon left for Tunnel Hill, Ga., Friday, to visit relatives during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Houts and Mrs. Isabelle Daffron went to Jasper Christmas afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Grimes spent Christmas with the latter's parents near Victoria.

Hogs sell at 8c to 8½c dressed in local markets. Last year they ranged from 6c to 8c.

Jackson Lee, of Whitwell, spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lee.

Hugh Byrd, of Copenhagen, spent Christmas here visiting his sister, Mrs. W. S. Wilson.

Mrs. Salie Lasater has moved here from East Lake to keep house for her brother, Matthew Pryor.

Geo. McCullough of the mountain was here Tuesday. He says this is not much of a time for logging.

Miss Anna Deakin, who has been teaching school at South Pittsburg, is at home spending the holidays with home folks.

We are offering the News and Farm & Fireside, one year each, and a handsome calendar, for $1.00. This offer expires Feb. 1.

Squire Wilson has got his new house near Glover Hill about completed, and will move there soon. We will regret to lose this family from our town.

Weather man Deakins, of the Supply Store, reports the thermometer at 10 above zero yesterday morning. This is the lowest record for the season, the lowest reported before being 14.

John Russell, of Widener, Ark., has been here the guest of Dave Teeters and others during the holidays. He has many friends and relatives here, and is an appreciative reader of the News.

In getting your stationery for the New Year don't forget the Old Reliable News Job Office, which produces the best work at the most reasonable prices.

Dennis Condra has returned from Chattanooga where he spent several days clerking for his uncle, Sidney Boss, who conducts a Novelty Store on Whiteside St.

We are in receipt of a nice calendar from the Marion Trust & Banking Co., of Jasper, which adorns a nook in our office. We thank the Marion Trust & Banking Co. for their remembrance.

We regret to note that our friend, Capt. T. A. Bartlett, is not able to be out on the streets. He is confined to the house by feebleness induced by an attack of grippe some few weeks ago. We hope he will soon be out again.

C. E. Blythe, of Memphis, was here Monday, and called to see the News. He and his family have been visiting Mrs. Blythe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brophy, at Victoria. He reports Mr. Brophy as greatly improved, which we are glad to hear.

Mrs. J. B. Chadwick and daughter, Miss Beniah, of Chattanooga, were the guests of Mrs. John Lawson and Mrs. W. C. Hill Tuesday. Mrs. Chadwick is wife of John B. Chadwick, a special officer on the Chattanooga Police Force, and is an aunt of Mrs. Lawson and Mrs. Hill.

The News regrets to learn of the illness of our friend, E. D. Brophy, at Victoria. Mr. Brophy about three weeks ago suffered a shock of paralysis from which he has not yet recovered, although improving. We hope he will get better, as he is one of Victoria's most energetic citizens when able to get about.

We are in receipt of a handsome calendar from the Dunlap Milling Co., which we are delighted to get and which our "women folks" have seized upon as "too good for this office" and have added to their household adornments. It is a combination wall pocket and calendar and bath an imported look, as they say. The Dunlap Milling Co. are makers of the famous "Dove" flour, a first class article, as cooks all know.

W. M. Lee is a crack shot, as those who participated in the shooting contest last week discovered. Thursday evening he attended it and in 22 hour won three purses out of five. On Friday appearing again objection was made to his shooting as too much a winner, and he offered to loan his gun to them and shoot with a borrowed one. This was jumped at but Lee again swiped three purses out of five, showing that it wasn't his gun but his shooting. They didn't want him to shoot any more.

The type of Job Printing we turn out is always the best possible. Care is always taken to make things look right, and you know what that means in printing—more time consumed in the work. Our prices are always reasonable, and prompt delivery.

Our friend, F. M. McCullough, of Jasper, very kindly forwards check in payment of subscription, and makes us appreciate it the more by saying, "We are taking several papers, but the Sequatchie News is always first read by the family. The dollar price of subscription I think should have been made long years ago. The paper is well worth the dollar."

Isaac N. Knox Dead.

Isaac N. Knox died here Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., at his home on the pike north of this place. Mr. Knox had been incapacitated for a long time, and for the past year or more has been confined to his room. He was born in 1839, and was a member of the 10th Tennessee Infantry. When iron ore was mined at Inman on the east side of the valley Mr. Knox served as postmaster, and ran a general store. For many years he was recognized as a preacher of power and his sermons were heard with close attention. He was a close reader and until he was stricken with blindness, kept up with world-movements accurately, and was at any time able to talk about what was going on politically. He leaves a wife, Mrs. Goldie Knox, and one son, Basil. His remains were buried at Caroline Chapel yesterday.

Chamberlain's Cough, Croup and Diarrhoea Remedy

This is a perfectly reliable medicine for bowel complaints, and one that has never been known to fail even in the most severe and dangerous cases. For sale by Whitwell Drug Co.

The News thermometer this morning registered 10 degrees, still cold. Other thermometers registered lower in other parts of town in more exposed locations.

Mr. and Mrs. "Cold Wave" (J. H. Curtis) of the mountain were thoughtful enough to send us a nice lot of mountain dried peaches this week, for which we thank them.

Tired Mothers.

It's hard work to take care of children and to cook, sweep, wash, sew and mend besides. Tired mothers should take Hood's Sarsaparilla—it refreshes the blood, improves the appetite, assures restful sleep.

What to Read.

"Tell me what a man reads and I will tell you what he is," said a wise writer; for little by little the things that we read become our thoughts, and make the very texture of the mind. During the last few months the attention of the American people has been aroused to the consideration of pure and impure foods. This agitation has done good, for with the abundance of good food there is little excuse for using any food which is harmful. The time has come when the American family must give better attention than in the past to another matter—the choice between good and bad reading. We have read enough about wickedness in both public and private life; too many stories of criminal transactions; too much about the evil and not enough about the good in life.

Let us have the bright and clean side of our American life, only. Let us read stories of heroes who are both brave and noble, and not vulgar and confessed criminals. The mission of the press is to help the reader, not drag him down; to suggest high, not low ideals.

At this season the average American family selects periodicals for the next year. Let the choice be only for clean, wholesome, patriotic periodicals. Send for the Prospect of the 1910 Volume of The Youth's Companion and see what an amount of the best reading selected from the world's abundance of every sort can be had for only $1.75—52 splendid issues. Every new subscriber receives in addition to the 52 issues for 1910, the "Venetian" Calendar, lithographed in thirteen colors and gold.

JUDGE CARPENTER

Suddenly Stricken With Death at Dunlap Yesterday.

Judge C. H. Carpenter was suddenly stricken with death at Dunlap yesterday at 1:30 p. m. This startling report reached this city yesterday evening, and it caused sorrow among the many friends of Judge Carpenter in this city. No details were learned beyond the fact that his death was very sudden, and totally unexpected. Judge Carpenter was manager of the Dunlap Milling Co., and by close attention to the business had succeeded in establishing a fine plant and building up a wide trade. He had been identified for many years with the growth of Dunlap and Sequatchie County. He was the founder of the Dunlap Tribune, which he established at Dunlap over twenty years ago. Of late, though, he has not been interested in the conduct of the paper. He was county judge of Sequatchie County for a term of years, filling the office very capably.

Judge Carpenter was born in Centre County, Pa., Dec. 25, 1842, the son of Samuel P. and Jane H. Carpenter, the former of whom was born in Germantown, Philadelphia County, Pa., in 1814, and died in Philadelphia in 1885; and the latter died in 1894 at the home of her son, Wm. H. Carpenter, at Clinton, Mo. Judge Carpenter graduated from the public schools of Philadelphia in 1858, and then entered the employ of the mercantile house of J. F. Dutton & Co., May 28, 1861, he enlisted in Co. E, 3rd New Jersey Vol. Infantry, which was a part of the famous Sixth Army Corps of the Army of the Potomac. He participated in many engagements, in all, in fact, except Fredericksburg. He was mustered out at Trenton, N. J., June 24, 1864, after serving three years in the ranks without serious wounds. In September, 1864, he went to Nashville and later to Chattanooga. He then moved to Dunlap where he opened a store in partnership with John Alley, doing business until September, 1868. He went from there to Jasper in the employ of Redfield & Co., with whom he remained for one year, and then organized the Jasper Agricultural Works, and was general manager of it until 1871. He then went to Nashville and traveled for eighteen months in the employ of Fishel & Bro. He then engaged in the lumber business in Clinton, Mo., but in 1875 sold out and returned to Dunlap, where he went into partnership with Wm. Rankin. In 1878 he discontinued this connection to become clerk of the Circuit Court of Sequatchie County, which he held for twelve years. During this time he read law and was admitted to the bar in 1882. In 1892 he was appointed County Judge, serving two years. In 1897 he was appointed United States Commissioner for Sequatchie county.

Mr. Carpenter was married Nov. 2, 1868, to Miss Lila Vaught, daughter of Dr. J. B. Vaught, and two children were born to them: Mrs. L. R. Huddleston and Mrs. W. P. Clark. He was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church and affiliated with the K. of P. and Masonic fraternities. In politics he was a democrat, and represented his district in the Chicago Convention of 1892.

Died from Wound.

Kelsy Daniels, an employee of the Dixie Cement Co., at Copenhagen, who shot himself Christmas Eve when deranged from the effects of near beer, died Monday from the wound. He was buried at South Pittsburg. He came to that place several months ago from Florence, Ala.
